How will this benefit you?

- ✓ Fast and attractive quotes:
To be viewed and signed online, resulting in more confirmations.
- ✓ More enquiries via your website:
Thanks to a seamless integration, you'll never have to copy and paste from an e-mail again. We connect effortlessly with any website.
- ✓ More time for customers, employees and yourself:
No more time wasted on Excel, creating work lists, schedules or calculating your purchases.
- ✓ A boost in turnover and customer satisfaction:
More requests, higher margins, less stress, faster invoicing and more satisfied customers.

Automate your administration with Catermonkey, maintain a clear overview, and dedicate more time to what matters most: your customers.

Which professionals consider Catermonkey essential?

Catermonkey is the solution for ambitious entrepreneurs who want to combine efficiency and growth without spending unnecessary time behind a computer.

Our software is ideal for:

- Catering companies tired of wasting time on quotations, kitchen lists, and purchase calculations.
- Event planners and venues seeking clear planning, smoother team coordination, and attractive quotations.
- Food trucks looking to serve more events with less administration.
- Street food vendors wanting to turn their website into a sales machine, send quotes faster, and manage their team efficiently.
- Butchers aiming to boost sales of BBQ packages or party assortments with minimal administration.
- Sandwich shops, party catering and breakfast services who want to sell more online while saving time and staying organized.
- ⇒ Caterers, care institutions and companies that work with weekly menus looking to move from paper or online orders to full planning, labeling, route lists, and even shared invoicing. All in one convenient app.

How Catermonkey makes a difference.

Wondering how Catermonkey can transform both your business and your personal life?

Visit our website to see how Bruun and Bieke from De Casteleer, an event venue in Kasterlee, Belgium, managed to multiply their profits and gain so much free time that they even started an on-site catering business called Zjaar Catering.

Catermonkey makes your business more profitable and your personal life more enjoyable.

For and by caterers and event venues.

In 2012, we started with a clear mission: to build a system that would really help the catering and events sector move forward. Together with a group of 15 caterers and event venues, we developed Catermonkey, a platform that is fully aligned with practice.

More than 500 companies in the Netherlands and Belgium now rely on Catermonkey every day.

From beautiful quotes and clear work lists to managing weekly menus or automating online orders, everything becomes easier and faster.

Our strength lies in collaboration: thanks to years of input from professionals in the sector, we have developed a plug-and-play system that is not only user-friendly but also makes companies future-proof.

Whether you're just starting out or already a major player, Catermonkey grows with you.

Today, we're ready for the next step. With a solid foundation and a growing number of satisfied users, we're setting course for a future in which Catermonkey becomes the standard for the worldwide sector. Join us, discover how easy it can be, and get your business ready for tomorrow!

The future starts here,
don't miss this opportunity!

Why Catermonkey?

Catermonkey allows you to fully digitise your workflow. Tasks are easily transferable, all information is clearly organised in one system and no longer just in your head. Less stress, more time and higher profits! Smart features such as the quotation indicator and structured request processing streamline your processes. This allows you to generate more revenue from your website. Ready for the future – or a possible takeover? Catermonkey is here for you.

Try our system for free, with no obligations or credit card required. Create a test account and discover how Catermonkey can make your work easier. Convinced after 14 days? Then choose a subscription that can be cancelled monthly.

At Catermonkey, we want only one thing: satisfied users.
